DETAILED ACTION

Whoever invents or discovers any new and useful process, machine, manufacture, or composition of matter, or any new and useful improvement thereof, may obtain a patent therefor, subject to the conditions and requirements of this title.

2. Claims 5,10,15 and 20 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 101 because the claimed invention is directed to non-statutory subject matter. Since the information do not provide any functional interrelationship to the tape to control the tape for accessing the information or reading the information . or impart to any software and hardware structural components to provide certain function that is processed by a computer, the information on the tape do not make them statutory See MPEP 2100 . It is noted that , there is no means or step for processing the claimed information or recitation of any function of the claimed information in the body of claims .

Allowable Subject Matter

3. Claims 1-4,6-9,11-14 and 16-19 are allowed.
4. The following is a statement of reasons for the indication of allowable subject matter:

The prior art fails to teach a recording apparatus having formatting means for disposing sync blocks on each of tracks of the magnetic tape by a rotary head as specified in claims 1-4,6-9,11-14 and 16-19.
